Now she must decide what to do. This fertilized egg cell cannot become an independently living organism for some nine months, for it must divide and redivide within its mother's womb and be nourished by way of its mother's bloodstream. It must develop, specialize, and grow larger until it has developed the necessary ability to live independently. Even after it emerges from its mother's womb, it requires constant and unremitting care for a period of time before it can be trusted to care for itself." "I think so," said Amos. "But that is a terribly grey swamp. I might blend into the scenery so completely I might never get out of it again." Several people at the back stood up and started clapping. The applause spread and turned into a standing ovation. Congreve grinned unabashedly to acknowledge the enthusiasm, stood for a while as the applause continued, and then grasped the sides of the podium again. I drove her up to a little A-frame at No. 43 Apollo on the lower shore of the Heliomere. It was a
